A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Sometimes, when I'm feeling dramatic, I think that nobody understands absolute disappointment the way theatre kids do. That feeling of pouring your soul into something you're proud of, only to have people not bother to show up to see it is something that is, unfortunately, a familiar feeling for those in the arts, and definitely for the characters in this show. However, you are reading this—so that is most certainly NOT the case here!

I have been very blessed in my six years of directing at West Catholic to see these seats full of expectant faces, eager to cheer on our performers night after night. The support that, in this theater, quite literally surrounds the members of the cast, pit, and crew is powerful and incredibly special.

Crazy For You is about two determined groups of people from very different walks of life joining together to put on a performance, despite the odds. In so many ways, I saw this modeled in the cast throughout our rehearsal process. They have persevered through snow days and illness. In a cast of 40 students, 17 haven't performed with WC Theatre prior to this show. Most of them had never worn tap shoes before November, but are now dancing confidently in them for eight minutes straight. On stage, there are choir students, band kids, tennis, softball, soccer and football players, student retreat leaders, mock trial members, kids who have been in every musical of their high school career, those who were "lovingly coerced" by their friends to audition, and students of all grades and abilities represented. I am so immeasurably proud of every single one of them.

For the past five years, I have watched the number of students auditioning grow, and the amount of space onstage shrink—and yet we always manage to find room. I firmly believe that the arts are transformative, and while we may not be rejuvenating an entire town with our performance, I hope that the West Catholic Theatre Program has at least impacted the lives of my students for the better.

To all of my students who have ever been a part of WC Theatre, I can say one thing for certain: just like Bobby Child, together, we absolutely accomplished something here.

Enjoy the show!
Justina Ouellette

Anthony Bergman as Everett Baker

Anthony Bergman is excited to perform in West Catholic's musical for the second show in a row as "Everett Baker" in Crazy For You. You may have seen some of Anthony's other productions such as Movie Monsters, Cinderella, or even Kamp Kaos. In his spare time, Anthony loves to go fishing, hangout with his friends, go outside, study medicine, and watch movies! Anthony's plans after West Catholic is attending GRCC for Psychiatry and traveling all over the world. "Thank you to Adam, Sarah, Tim, Evan, and all of my friends for being there for me when I needed it most, my family for encouraging and pushing me to keep on working hard, and most importantly to my teachers for giving me an education that will take me far."

Sarah Goffer as Tess

Sarah is thrilled to be playing Tess in her last West Catholic theater production. She has recently appeared in Comedy of Errors as Luciana, Movie Monsters as Frankie, and Bells Are Ringing as Carol. Other than theater, she plays softball, is in choir, band, and is a retreat leader. Sarah plans to take the next step in her education by studying Secondary Education, specifically Mathematics. Sarah would like to send a special thanks out to her parents who have always believed in her, her two brothers for giving her the best childhood, Ms. Ouellette who was a great teacher and mentor and finally thanks all her friends.

Micaiah Ernsberger on the Sound Board

Micaiah is returning as a member of the crew for Crazy for You! She previously worked on the soundboard for The Plot, Like Gravy, Thickens, and was an ensemble member in Cinderella, and Bells Are Ringing. She enjoys spending time with friends, and photography. Micaiah plans on attending Northern Michigan University in the fall for Criminal Justice and Speech Language Pathology. "Thank you so much to Miss Ouellette for giving me the opportunity to be a part of her theatre community and supporting me so much!"

Seniors

Elli Herold as Perkins/Follie Ensemble

Elisabeth is excited to be a part of the musical and having her first role in an English speaking one as a proud member of the Follie girl ensemble! She expects to not be seen by people here, but back in her home country she played Ophelia from Hamlet and The Girl in The Bear and the Girl. She enjoys swimming, reading and learning new languages. Elisabeth plans to go back to Germany to finish her high school there and hopefully become a student at Hamburg University. "Thank you to every single teacher in the Theater for believing and not giving up on me and my family for their support. Danke."

Eliza Kieras as Junior

Eliza is excited to be returning to the stage for her third musical at West Catholic this year as cowboy Junior! She was also a part of Cinderella, and was acting as assistant stage manager for All Shook Up, as well as being backstage crew for The Plot Like Gravy Thickens. She is involved in many other activities including being a member of the equestrian team and girls lacrosse team. Eliza plans to work on a ranch in Montana this summer, then continue her education at Utah State University studying rangeland ecology and management. "Thank you to my parents and especially my sister Marie for all of her continuous support. I would also like to thank my stage mates for making this year incredible."

Abby Ludwick as Polly Baker

Abby is excited to be returning for her fourth West Catholic musical as the strong-willed and energetic Polly Baker. You may previously know her from her one-line wonder in All Shook Up, her hoof-footed role in Cinderella, or as the quick-witted Ella Peterson in Bells Are Ringing. Outside of theater, you will find her playing tennis, leading retreats, and working as a Senior Class Officer. Abby is unsure of where she will end up for college, but is looking forward to returning to support the theater program in its future productions. "Thank you to my friends and family for your endless support, and to Miss Ouellette— thank you for believing in me even when I didn't believe in myself. I love you all from the bottom of my heart."

Seniors

Audrey McKeiver

as Custus

Audrey is elated to do her second musical at West Catholic as Custus the cowboy! You may have seen her in another musical I, or in between scenes as crew for Cinderella. In her free time she enjoys reading, listening to music, and watching movies. Audrey plans to attend Grand Valley University and major in Computer Science. "Thank you to Amber and Maggie who drove me to rehearsals, to all my cast mates who have made theatre a second home, and to my parents who support me in all I do."

Isabelle Mitchell

on Flute

Isabelle is very excited to be returning to the pit orchestra for her third West Catholic musical! You may have heard her lovely flute tones from behind the curtains in Cinderella and Bells Are Ringing. In her free time, she enjoys reading, baking, and watching 90's rom coms. Isabelle plans to attend Valparaiso University and major in social work next fall. "Thank you to God for being my constant, my family for putting up with me during tech week, and to Mei Moore for being one of the main reasons I'm in pit!"

Joliana Mondroski

as Patricia Fodor

Jolie is beyond excited to bring crazy Patricia Fodor to life in her tenth performance with West Catholic! Some of Jolie's favorite productions she has been apart of include, but are not limited to Anne of Green Gables as Diana, Movie Monsters as Femur, and The Comedy of Errors as Adriana. Outside of theatre, Jolie is a part of the choir and plays tennis in the spring. She also enjoys reading, thrifting, and watching Gossip Girl. Jolie plans to study psychology in the fall, but is undecided on where she will be attending. "I would like to thank Miss Ouellette for all her help and support as well as my family for all of their love. P.S. Sarah, thank you for the best 4 years. "

Seniors

Mei Moore      on Clarinet/Bass Clarinet

Mei is jubilant to be playing in her third and final West Catholic musical. Perchance you've heard her in Rodgers and Hammerstein's Cinderella or Bells Are Ringing! Mei was this year's head drum major, but outside of band she participates as an officer in Art Club and a member of the quiz bowl team. In her downtime, you can catch her cooking, belly laughing with friends, or taking one fat nap. After graduation, Mei hopes to major in biomedical sciences in an undecided college and travel when she can. "Firstly, thank you to alumni Lydia Gasper and Noelle Hall for turning pit into an absolute blast. I would've never continued if it weren't for you. Mom and Dad, thank you for always supporting me in everything I do. Lastly, I extend my deepest gratitude to Isabelle Mitchell—my best friend and my constant pit buddy :)"

Josh Murray      as Eugene Fodor

Josh is in his second musical as Eugene Fodor. His previous shows include ensemble for Bells Are Ringing and Scarecrow in Movie Monsters. Josh is also involved in band, choir, and baseball. He plans on going to GVSU and majoring in fisheries and aquatic sciences. "I would like to thank my friends and family for supporting me every step of the way."

Timothy O'Brien      as Lank Hawkins

Tim is excited to be appearing in his first West Catholic musical. He had an amazing time playing Wolf in the fall play, Movie Monsters. In his free time, Tim attempts to complete his missing assignments and omits any new work assigned. After graduation, he plans to pursue a liberal arts degree with a focus on English Literature. "Thank you to my mom and dad for the endless support and thank you to Miss Ouellette for refusing to ignore my inner theatre kid."

When he's not on stage, he's either playing cards with his family or playing Minecraft. Niko plans to apply to St. John Vianney seminary in the fall to discern a vocation in the priesthood. He'd like to thank his sister, Audrey, for inspiring his love of theatre and his parents for continually supporting his interests and faith. BUMBLEBEE TUNA PA!!!
