A NOTE FROM THE DIRECTOR

Anything Goes has been stuck in my head since 2012 when my high school did a few songs from it for our medley musical in the spring. I wasn't in either of those numbers, but the music never left me, and it has been such a joy to see the full show actualized in front of me after so long! Beyond being a fun filled cruise, this show has everything you could possibly want in a romantic comedy: gangsters, a love triangle (square?), an underground gambling ring, a wedding, and disguises galore (anyone have a gorilla suit?). From the moment auditions began, the cast has been having a blast. I walked into my Theatre 1 class the day after auditions to find students dancing to the choreography they had just learned. It made my day! Not even a week of snow days could stop this cast.

We are so fortunate to be able to perform live to a student pit band, and I want to be sure to acknowledge them and their talented director Mr. Darren LaPrise. Darren balances a full teaching schedule on top of the WC Concert and WC Jazz bands, and still manages to find time to work with students to bring the music of our show to life every year. His passion for music is evident in the results of his labor for his students. What we do here would not be possible without his time, talent, and ever generous heart. I am so eternally grateful to him for supporting my vision for shows year after year, and helping bring them to life.

This show also brought me the opportunity to work with a former WCTE student again, but this time as a coworker and a friend. With Joi Thomas and her husband welcoming a sweet baby girl in February, Jenna Hemmes joined us as our choreographer. It was so much fun getting to see Jenna on the other side of things after directing her my first two years at WC, and to be there as she had experiences that mirrored mine at her age. I'm so blessed to call her a friend, and even though I will miss her dearly, I wish her nothing but success as she pursues her new career in NYC working for a Broadway production company!

These students have worked so hard for this moment, putting in countless hours of practice. Please enjoy the show as we get to showcase the results of their efforts!

~ Justina Ouellette

Seniors

Greta Aldworth

on Bari Sax

Greta is ecstatic to be returning for her fourth year in the pit orchestra! Anything Goes will be her sixth show at West Catholic. Previous productions include Movie Monsters and Trap as a member of the stage crew, and Cinderella, Bells are Ringing, and Crazy For You in the Pit Orchestra. Outside of theater she enjoys being on the cheer team, participating in winter guard, watching shows and movies, listening to music, and hanging out with her friends. Greta plans on pursuing a career in hair cutting, coloring, and styling by attending a cosmetology school after graduation. "I want to give a huge thank you to Nora, Liam, Mom, and Dad for always supporting me and encouraging me to stay active in the theater community, as well as to Miss Ouellette and Mr. LaPrise for allowing me to participate even with a busy schedule."

Elanora Alivia

as Hope Harcourt

Elanora is so excited to play the role of Hope Harcourt in her first year at West Catholic. Elanora transferred into West this year, so our theatre program is new to her, but she is so excited to be on stage for the first time! In her free time, she enjoys baking, reading, soccer, and spending time with friends and family. Elanora plans on going to college to become a nurse. "Thank you to all my directors for their unwavering support, the cast for making me feel so welcome here, and my friends and family for encouraging me to always be brave."

Zoe Brechting as Purity/Dance Captain

Zoe is exhilarated to be playing Purity as well as Dance Captain for her fourth and final musical at West Catholic! You may have previously seen her in Crazy For You, Bells Are Ringing, Cinderella, or possibly Gingie or a camper if you've been here a while. In her very slim amount of free time, she enjoys crafts, going to concerts, and spending time with loved ones. Following graduation, Zoe plans to attend Loyola University Chicago in the fall to study Political Science. "Thank you to Miss Ouellette, Mrs. Hulst, and all of my directors for bringing me into the theatre world. To Courtney, my parents, and my castmates for being my foundation and support all these years. I couldn't have done it without you, and I hope to carry you with me into my next chapter."

Seniors

Evan Buehler as Moonface Martin

Evan is excited to be performing as Moonface Martin in his seventh West Catholic Production. In the past, Evan has performed as characters in Bells are Ringing, Crazy for You, Movie Monsters, and many other productions. He enjoys playing music and video games in his free time. After graduation, he plans to pursue a career in music education and/or electrical engineering. "Thank you to my family and friends who have supported me in all of my endeavors. A special thanks to my sister Claire who first encouraged me to do theatre."

Marie Cameron as Chastity

Marie finds it bittersweet and fulfilling to be playing the role of Chastity in her fourth and final musical at West Catholic. She has also been onstage in Crazy for You, Bells are Ringing, Cinderella, Trap, and Movie Monsters. When Marie isn't at school or trying and failing to keep a decent sleep schedule, she enjoys spending time with friends, listening to music and playing it on her guitar, spinning her flag, thrifting and antiquing, watching cartoons and old television, and drawing and crafting in nearly every form she can get her hands on. Marie plans on attending Aquinas College, most likely majoring in biology, in the hopes of becoming a secondary school teacher for biology based classes. "All thanks and glory to God for making all things possible, to my family, friends, and teachers for all of their support and encouragement in my life, and of course to Ms. Ouellette for giving me all the opportunities to grow throughout my time spent with her."

Marjorie Gordon as Virtue

Marjorie is so excited to be playing Virtue, one of Reno's fabulous angels. She has been doing theater at West all four years and has in many productions such as The Plot Like Gravy Thickens, Bells Are Ringing, and most recently TRAP. She participates in a variety of activities such as being a Life Force leader and singing mezzo soprano in the West Catholic concert choir. Marjorie plans to study English secondary education in college and hopes to continue doing theater in college. "Thank you to my parents, grandparents, cousins, friends, and teachers for always supporting me in all that I do! I love you guys!"

Seniors

Brady Kurlenda as Lord Evelyn Oakleigh

Brady is excited to be playing Lord Evelyn Oakleigh in this year's production of Anything Goes. This show is his first ever musical experience in high school. In his free time he enjoys spending time at home, watching new movies, and discovering new music. Brady plans to attend school next year to study Political Science or International Relations, with a dream of becoming a diplomat. "Thank you to Miss Ouellette and the West Catholic Theatre Program, along with all my fellow castmates, for pushing me out of my comfort zone and helping to create memories to last a lifetime!"

Maria Mulder

on Drums

Maria is so excited to be playing drum set for her fourth musical at West Catholic! You may have heard her in Cinderella, Bells Are Ringing, and Crazy for You. In her free time, she enjoys dancing, reading and working on music projects. Maria is planning on attending Hope College in the fall. She would like to thank her parents and her brother for all of their support.

Katarina Neidlinger as Reno Sweeney

Katarina is ecstatic to be returning as Reno Sweeney for her fourth musical with West Catholic! You may have seen her in previous roles such as Angela in Trap, Irene Roth in Crazy For You, or even at Holland Community Theater as Josephine in Big Fish. In her free time, she enjoys reading, learning new songs and dances, and hanging out with her friends. Katarina plans on attending the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee where she will pursue getting a BFA in musical theater. "Thank you to my parents for the endless love and support, to my brothers who show up even if they may not want to, to all of my friends for making every moment of theater the best possible, and to Ms. O for making theatre feel like a home for all of us."

Seniors

Jake Overbeek

on Clarinet

Jake is incredibly excited to be back playing clarinet in the pit orchestra for his third year with West Catholic! You may have heard him in prior West Catholic musicals Cinderella and Bells Are Ringing, or seen him onstage as Cowboy Wyatt in last year's production of Crazy for You. When he's not absolutely shredding on the clarinet, he enjoys playing tennis, spending time with loved ones, and playing video games. After graduation, Jake plans to attend college and study Biology. "Thank you to my family, who's had to put up with crazy hours, and for my friends for constantly inspiring me to be better and do better."

Sophia Pawlanta

on Flute/Piccolo

Sophia is beyond excited to be in the pit orchestra for the fourth year! You may have heard the sounds of her flute and piccolo in the past three West Catholic musicals: Cinderella, Bells are Ringing, and Crazy for You. In her spare time, she loves to sew, knit, crochet, read, and spend time with friends and family. Sophia plans to attend Hope College in the fall, where she will figure out what she wants to study along the way. "I would like to thank God for my amazing time with the WC theatre program, my family for their constant support, and my friends for making me who I am today."

Callahan Peterson

as Elisha Whitney

Cal is excited to be cast as Elisha Whitney in his second musical at West Catholic. You may have seen him hurdling and splitting pants last year in Crazy For You. In his free time he enjoys working out, reading, and trying new restaurants. Cal plans to attend college out of state, major in Political Science, and hopefully get into law. "Thank you to all those who encouraged me to expand my horizons and join theatre, I am forever grateful for the experience."

Seniors

Theresa Rodden

on Trumpet

Theresa is ecstatic to return for her fourth musical as the lead trumpet! Previously, you may have heard her play in the pit orchestra for Bells are Ringing, Crazy for You, and Cinderella. In her free time, she enjoys painting, dance, and spending time with family. Theresa plans to attend college in the fall and study business marketing. "Thank you to my mom and dad who have moved mountains for me. I wouldn't be here without your support!"

Kate Steffens

Backstage Crew

Kate is delighted to be returning to the backstage crew for her third West Catholic musical! She previously crewed the past productions of Crazy for You and Bells are Ringing, as well as performing in musicals throughout middle school. In her free time she enjoys painting, reading, and hanging out with her friends; outside of theatre, she is involved in band, choir, and cheerleading. Kate plans on attending GRCC for a degree in Magnetic Resonance Imaging, and then transferring to Grand Valley State University after. "Thank you to my teachers who guide me, my parents who support me in everything that I do, and my friends who are always there for me. You all mean so much, and I am so grateful for everything that you do."

Ally Stoffers

on Bass Clarinet/Clarinet/Percussion

Ally is excited to play in the pit for her 4th musical at West! She has played percussion in Cinderella, Bells are Ringing, and Crazy for You. She also did the crew for Trap. In her free time she enjoys crocheting, playing clarinet, and spending time with friends. Ally plans to attend GVSU to study for a career in music. "Thank you to Mr. LaPrise for always encouraging me to be my best self in all that I do and to my family for always making my dreams possible and supporting me."

Seniors

Maddie Trippany

Stage Manager

Maddie is ecstatic to be the stage manager for her eighth show at West Catholic. You may have seen her working on other recent productions such as The Plot, like Gravy, Thickers, Cinderella, Anne of Green Gables, Bells are Ringing, Movie Monsters, Crazy For You, and Trap. In her free time she enjoys reading and taking nature walks. Maddie plans to attend Michigan State University next fall. "Thank you to my mom for always supporting me in my theater journey and to MJ for being a great friend and always bringing a smile to my face during late night rehearsals."

Eleanor Westbrook

on Euphonium

This will be Eleanor's fourth time playing Euphonium in the pit. She has been in the pit for Cinderella, Bells are Ringing, and Crazy for You, and she was in the crew for Movie Monsters. When she's not in the pit, she enjoys playing in marching band and concert band, singing in the choir, running track and field, and playing piano in her free time. After graduation, she plans to go to GRCC and then St. Mary's (or Cornerstone) to study Psychology. She would like to thank her parents, her siblings, her grandparents, her great-grandma, and all her amazing friends for always being there for her, supporting her, and letting her know that she can do all things through Christ who gives her strength.

Fangjie (Jeremy) Xu

on Trumpet

Fangjie (Jeremy) Xu is excited to be performing as a trumpet player in the pit orchestra for his second musical at West Catholic. You may have seen him performing in previous West Catholic pit orchestras, marching band, concert band, jazz band, choir, or at MSBOA Solo and Ensemble Festival. Outside of theatre, he is involved in NHS, academic research, tutoring, MUN, and international student programs at West Catholic. After graduation, Jeremy plans to attend his dream college to study in molecular biology, pharmacology or public health while continuing his involvement in music. "Thank you to Theresa and the other trumpet players for their support, teamwork, and encouragement throughout the production, as well as to Mr. LaPrise, the pit/band conductor, my family for their constant support, and everyone who chose to be part of the pit orchestra."
